

Connect, Communicate, Create Your Relationships

An Equus Experience

Relationships Happen!

They happen because of an exchange of energy & our awareness of what we energetically communicate. Becoming aware of its effect on those around us can empower us to create relationships we truly desire.

Why You?

- To enhance your connection with others
- To improve trust & congruence in your relationships
- To improve your awareness & communication
- To increase your understanding of what you are creating & attracting

Why Horses?

Horses are highly sensitive & provide immediate, clear & non-biased feedback.

Interacting with horses offers a unique opportunity to experience the subtle & not so subtle impact of the ways you show up in your lives.

Why These Coaches?

Their combined energy is vibrant, playful & transformational. They bring a world of experience in self-development, coaching & relational skill-building.
